

Tyler R. Tichelaar

Praise for Spirit of the North

SPIRIT OF THE North is a phenomenal novel. Barbara Traugott's story reflects that people can create their own destinies by changing their attitudes and believing happiness is possible for them. Highly recommended!"

— Patrick Snow, International Best-Selling Author of Creating Your Own Destiny and The Affluent Entrepreneur

TICHELAAR'S CHARACTERS JUMP off the pages of his book. They are shaped by the northern Michigan woods he describes so lovingly, even if their lives start in other places. In this latest book, the author demonstrates again his mastery of showing the impact of one life upon another. The woods, of course, are dark and hold their secrets, but when the past starts to take a direct hand in the present-day lives of the main characters, it's clear that Tichelaar believes human lives are full of beauty as well as of things that defy rational explanation."

— Diana M. DeLuca, Ph.D., author of Extraordinary Things, and Director of the Halifax Families Association and RCAF Memorial Museum, Trenton, Ontario

TALENTED AUTHOR TYLER R. Tichelaar brings us another amazing story set in the exciting and dangerous depths of the 1800s Upper Peninsula of Michigan. In Spirit of the North, Mr. Tichelaar cleverly weaves together the past, present, and spiritual worlds to create a heart-touching story that will inspire readers to ponder their own existence. Thank you so much, Mr. Tichelaar, for sharing your special story-writing gifts!"

— Chris Shanley-Dillman, author of Finding My Light and The Black Pond

